

THE HEART OF SOLANO

Juanita J. Martin
1st Poet Laureate
City of Fairfield
2010-2012

Hear the wind rush over golf course green,
as sunlight peers through nature's tapestry.
Witness the bourgeoning of Fairfield, California,
gateway to the Bay Area.

Homespun values are its appeal,
where touches of industry, close-knit communities,
are nestled in the palms of history.

Patrons gather for festivals, laughs or a brew,
delightful cuisine, a stroll through the mall,
or those infamous jelly beans.

Pilots write their name over Travis Air Force Base.
Families honor the red, white, and blue,
as veterans are remembered in parades of glory.

A casual moon settles in the nightly splendor,
as sounds of the city remain in the background.
Just as traffic lights dance in the rain's vibrato,
the heart of Solano beats.
